

Rural Route Evaluation Dispute Process (RREDP)

Highlights and Overview

- Used for Initial Route Evaluations under RRECS
- Teams of two designated at District and Area Level
 - Use Evaluation Dispute Forms 1 and 2

Rural Route Evaluation Dispute Process (RREDP)

- Used in lieu of the grievance procedure for disputes arising from the initial route evaluation under RRECS
- Limited to the identified subjects outlined in the MOU
- Commitment to resolve disputes and fix errors where identified

Rural Route Evaluation Dispute Process (RREDP)

- Items that can be disputed under this process
 - An entry of zero (0) or a questionable number in any data field on PS Form 4241-A that would otherwise expect to have a time credit
 - Office Walk
 - Route Length
 - Regular, Centralized, or Total Boxes
 - Daily Dismounts
 - Daily Dismount Dist.
 - Daily Activities
 - Miscellaneous Time
 - Option Election

RREDP – Local Level

- To initiate a dispute, carrier and local management representative will complete Evaluation Dispute Form-1
 - Carrier and local manager may agree that credit is missing
 - Annotate form with local parties' agreement
 - Attach supporting documentation
- Evaluation Dispute Form-1 and relevant documents will be forwarded to Manager, District Labor Relations and NRLCA District Representative
 - Examples of relevant documents: PS Form 4241-A and 4241-M, minimal survey information, DPM/LTM printouts, etc.

RREDP – Local Level

- If entire office has the same dispute, one form should be completed for the office
 - Example no Safety/Service Talk time given
 - Annotate form with parties' agreement
 - Include average weekly time normally used
- Must be submitted no later than May 31, 2023
 - May be sent electronically via email

Evaluation Dispute Form-1

RREDP – Disputes & Grievances

- The RREDP will be used to resolve disputes related to the listed subjects, without the filing of grievances
- When a subject is under consideration in the RREDP, any grievance concerning that subject will be considered held in abeyance
- A copy of the held in abeyance grievance will be forwarded to the RREDP designees at the appropriate district or area level.
- Grievances filed will be held in abeyance behind lead case number 6X-21R-C 23233504

- District Management Representative will annotate the dispute on the Route Evaluation Dispute Log and assign a District Control Number before meeting with the NRLCA Representative
 - Log should consist of Office, Finance, Route number, ZIP
 Code, category of dispute, and a column for final disposition

 Control # should be ZIP Code plus number of dispute (first dispute would be 01, second would be 02, etc.)

- District team will review all relevant factors that affect the credit associated in the PS Form 4241-A data field in dispute.
 - Ensure that the team notes any agreements annotated by the local parties
- District team will partner with local operations to include the district delivery support specialist, where needed, to obtain additional information
- Team will either agree to a resolution, agree no action will be taken, or will impasse the dispute and complete the top portion of Evaluation Dispute Form-2, providing an explanation for the final decision

- If an agreement is not reached at the District level, Evaluation Dispute Form-1, Evaluation Dispute Form-2, and supporting documentation will be forwarded to the Area Director Labor Relations and the NRLCA designated representative
- Forward impassed disputes to the Area Director, Labor Relations or the designee, and the NRLCA representative as soon as possible, but no more than 30 days of receipt at the district level

- District LR will provide control number
- Consult with operations partners when additional information is needed
- Ensure completion of the top portion of Evaluation Dispute Form – 2, providing an explanation for each decision
- Ensure a copy of the completed District Review is forwarded to the local Postmaster and NRLCA DR

RREDP – Area Level

- The area team will jointly review the dispute within 21 calendar days of receipt.
- The area team will either agree to a resolution, agree no action will be taken or will impasse the dispute.
- Any dispute remaining unresolved will require each team member provide a written recommendation for resolution to accompany the file.
- A copy of the file will be forwarded to the Director Contract Administration (NRLCA), and the NRLCA Director Labor Relations

RREDP – Area Level

- Consult with operations partner when additional information is needed
- Ensure completion of bottom portion of Evaluation Dispute Form – 2, providing an explanation for each decision
- Each party will write a recommendation for resolution for each dispute going to impasse
- Ensure a copy of the completed Area Review is forwarded to the local Postmaster and NRLCA DR
